We ask about you like a child
Asking "who are you, what are you, where are you now?"
We can't decide just what to say
That will honor and praise you today

But we sing with all our might
And pray that we'll receive our sight
As we gather to proclaim
Christ is risen, now, always

We come of you just like a child
The Alpha, Omega, beginning and end
The "all-in-all" is what we say You're our savior, our counselor, our friend

But we know you're so much more
Than what you were before
So we gather to proclaim
Christ is risen, now, always Always

We speak of you just like a child
For we know that all of us are children of God
We're here to say we've found the way
Finding life and forgiveness always

With our faith, we'll struggle through
This world of green and blue
As we gather to proclaim
Christ is risen, now, always

So we sing with all our might Pray that we'll receive our sight
Because we know you're so much more
Than what you were before
With our faith we'll struggle through
This world of green and blue
As we gather to proclaim
Christ is risen, now, always
