God reached down from on high and took hold of me

God drew me out of deep waters from my powerful enemy
from my powerful enemy

I was confronted the day the day of my disaster

My foes were too strong for me but the Lord was my support my God was my support

God brought me out into a new place more spacious than I had seen

God rescued me and delighted in me
The Lord has come for me
My God has come for me

Keep my lamp burning, God lit all through the night

God, help me go through the waters turn the dark towards the light
turn the dark towards the light

Your way is perfect and pure a shield for those who seek it

The one who arms me with strength is the one who knows my name

is the one who knows my name

To the faithful you show yourself

More faithful than we can know

The Lord has come for me

My God has come for me

Darkness, the covering the canopy around

Rain and clouds filled the sky

as God thundered from high

as God thundered from high

Scattering all enemies with hail and bolts of lightning

The voice of the most high spoke in the channels of the earth

You reached right down and lifted me up from deep in the dark blue sea

God rescued me and delighted in me

The Lord has come for me

My God has come for me

for me, for me
